Update: Salmo RCMP seek public assistance in locating Kayla Boisvert

Salmo RCMP continue efforts to locate Kayla Boisvert, who was reported missing on July 28, 2026, from the Shambhala Music Festival.

RCMP and festival organizers have been working closely together since the outset of this investigation. On July 29, Search and Rescue attended the festival grounds to assist with search efforts.

There has been significant sharing of information on social media; however, it remains important that anyone with firsthand information contact police directly and not rely solely on social media posts.

On July 30, a tip was received that led investigators to a confirmed sighting of Kayla on July 29, 2026, at approximately 8:30 p.m. south of Salmo, BC. Investigators are releasing photos from that sighting to provide the public with updated images of what Kayla was wearing, in the hope of locating her.

Investigators are continuing to work to determine how Kayla travelled to the location south of Salmo and to establish her movements following the sighting.

Anyone with information regarding Kayla's whereabouts is asked to contact Salmo RCMP at 250-357-2212 or their local police agency immediately.
